contemporary portrait in paintings that celebrate the complexities of identity and personal relationships.

2018 Artists of the Mohawk Hudson Region

October 11 – December 8, 2018

Among the longest-running regionals in the country, it provides a leading benchmark for contemporary art activity in the Upper Hudson Valley and Adirondack regions. The exhibition focuses on contemporary artists living and working within a 100-mile radius of the Capital Region and rotates annually among the University Art Museum, the Albany Institute of History & Art, and The Hyde Collection in Glens Falls. Juried this year by sculptor, curator, and public installation artist Jean Shin.

Flow: Alumni Artists from Mohawk Hudson Region Exhibitions 2009-2017

October 11 – December 8, 2018

Highlighting eleven alumni artists working in a range of mediums including painting, photography, sculpture, and video, this exhibition demonstrates the Alumni Association's support of the Museum's mission of building an accessible collection of contemporary art that serves as a teaching resource and provides a basis for critical thought, historical inquiry, and understanding of the artistic process.
